About Visva-Bharati

Visva-Bharati was founded in 1921 by the first non-European Nobel Laureate Rabindranath Thakur (popularly known as Tagore). In May 1951, Visva-Bharati was declared to be a Central University and "An Institution of National Importance" by an Act of Parliament. It was granted the status of a unitary, teaching and residential university. The President of India is the Paridarsaka (Visitor) of the University, the Governor of West Bengal is the Pradhana (Rector), and the Prime Minister of India acts as the Acharya (Chancellor). The present Vice-Chancellor of Visva-Bharati is Professor Sanjoy K Mallik.
