Observation of Librarians' Day - 2024

On the occasion of the 132nd birth anniversary of Padmasharee Prof. Dr. S. R. Ranganathan, father of library science and pioneer of library movement in India, Librarian's Day is going to be observed by Visva-Bharati Library Network on 09 August 2024 at the Conference Hall, Central Library, at 4.30 pm.

Talks, book exhibitions, recitations, songs, quiz competitions, audio drama, etc., will be arranged to celebrate Librarians' Day 2024. Sri Saumitra Chakraborty, former Professional Assistant, Visva-Bharati Library Network (VBLN), has agreed to deliver one invited lecture as a tribute of VBLN to Dr Ranganathan.

Professor Arabinda Mondal, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor (Acting), Visva-Bharati, has kindly consented to chair the event and inaugurate the book exhibition.

All Officers, Professionals, and Staff of the Visva-Bharati Library Network are requested to participate, extend support, and attend to organize the event in a befitting manner.

The Principals, HODs, and Chief Coordinator of the Bhavana Library are requested to allow the Officers, Professionals, and Staff of the concerned Bhavana Library to attend the event.

Students and scholars are welcome to participate in the event and may contact Dr Smritimoy Ghosh, Professional Assistant, Central Library (gsmritimoy@gmail.com), to enlist their names. We have already received a few names from the Library Friends of VBLN.

Principals, Directors, HODs, Faculty Members, Officers, Professionals, Staff, Scholars, and Students of Visva-Bharati are earnestly requested to make it convenient to grace the event with physical presence.

Cooperation from the stakeholders is highly solicited to organize the event.
