To whom it might concern,

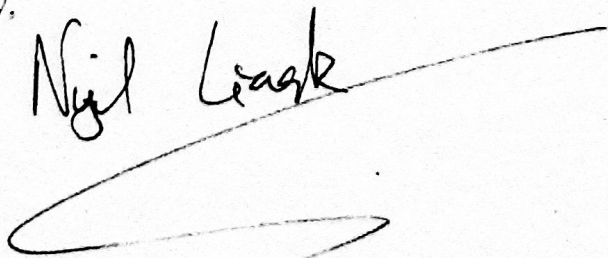

Letter of Invitation to Prof Debarati Bandyopadhyay, Department of English, Visva-Bharati, Santiniketan, India.

I am writing to invite Prof Debarati Bandyopadhyay to the University of Glasgow to work with me as a Visiting Fellow from 5th July 2018 for a month. Prof Bandyopadhyay is currently working on an important book-length study exploring the development of the 'New Nature Writing' and Ecocriticism. During a previous research visit to the University of Essex (working with my former doctoral student Dr Susan Oliver) she began studying the writings of the 18th century Welsh traveller and naturalist Thomas Pennant. I am currently the Co-Investigator of a 4 year AHRC research project 'Curious Travellers: Thomas Pennant's Welsh and Scottish <<http://curioustravellers.ac.uk/en/>> (2014-18). Together with my research assistants in Glasgow I am establishing an online archive of Pennant's correspondence and other manuscript material relevant to his natural history and travel writing. I also recently co-edited (with the project's PI Mary-Ann Constantine) Enlightenment Travel and British Identities: Thomas Pennant's Tours in Wales and Scotland (London: Anthem, 2017), the first scholarly publication dedicated entirely to Pennant's writings. Glasgow (as well as our collaborating institution, the University of Wales at Aberystwyth) is now the international centre for research on Pennant and his circle, and 18th century nature writing.

I have been in correspondence with Prof Bandyopadhyay for several months, and have been impressed by her scholarly work and his interest in studying Pennant and 18th century nature writing from an ecocritical perspective. I am now writing formally to invite her to spend a month in Glasgow to pursue her research on Pennant with me, in order to develop an academic collaboration with the Curious Travellers project. Prof Alice Jenkins, the Head of School, has agreed that the normal charge for visiting scholars can consequently be waived, and Prof Bandyopadhyay will have full access to the excellent research materials in Glasgow University Library. She will also be permitted to attend research seminars during her stay, and consult with other staff members with an interest in ecocriticism.

Please let me know if you have any queries regarding this invitation. I very much hope to welcome her to Glasgow later this year.

GRANT TERMS AND CONDITIONS

A. Financial

1. Grant funds must be used specifically for the designated purpose(s) in fulfillment of the objectives outlined in the project proposal.

3. The grant funds must be used specifically in accordance with the attached budget categories. In case you anticipate a change in the provisions made in the approved budget categories by 20 per cent or Rs 50,000/-, whichever is less, a prior written approval must be sought from IFA at least one month before the end of the grant term.
4. A grant modification will also need to be approved if it is found necessary to introduce a new budget category (or categories) for legitimate grant-related expenditure. The Grantee is requested to seek an approval for a grant modification request before using funds to cover costs that cannot be accounted for under approved budget categories.
5. Any funds committed for the purposes of the grant but not expended within the term of the grant, will be returned to IFA with interest earned if any.
6. Grant funds will be released in three periodic installments of 50%, 40% and 10% respectively. Subsequent installments will only be released after the satisfactory submission of requisite reports on time as mentioned in Section B on Reporting in this letter. The final installment of 10% will be released after three weeks of submission of satisfactory final reports on time and delivery and depositing of grant materials as outlined on Page 1 of this letter, along with the duly signed undertaking as per the format in Annexure III: Undertaking.

8. If the Grantee has sought, received or will seek funding from any other sources for this project and for the same purposes as mentioned in the proposal submitted to IFA, the Grantee needs a written approval from IFA to do so. Co-funders will not be entitled to any rights or license terms that impinge on the license terms of IFA as mentioned in Section G of this letter.

B. Reporting

1. The Grantee needs to submit two sets of signed reports to IFA – the Interim Reports at the end of the first installment of the grant and the Final Reports within 45 days after the end of the grant period. Each set of reports will consist of a Narrative Report and a Financial Report.
2. The Interim Narrative Report should describe the progress of the grant activities towards achieving the goals and objectives of the project as mentioned in the proposal, reflections on the process and challenges and hurdles faced during the reporting period.
3. The Interim Financial Report should be as per the format in Annexure I: Interim Financial Report. This report should reflect the actual expenditure under the various approved budget categories and does not need to be audited.
4. Only if the Interim Narrative and Financial Reports are satisfactory, the request for second installment will be considered. From the time we receive a request for the second installment, it will take IFA a minimum of two weeks to release the grant installment.
5. The Final Narrative Report should be comprehensive in describing and assessing all the activities undertaken during the entire grant period. It should be a self-evaluative document, covering shortcomings, accomplishments and innovations, responses to specific constraints or problems, and lessons learnt.
6. The Final Financial Report should be as per the format in Annexure II: Final Financial Report. It should have all records of expenditures like bills, vouchers and documents attached and be certified by a practicing Chartered Accountant confirming that the funds have been utilised for the purpose for which the grant was made.
7. The Grantee is required to send IFA soft copies as well as signed hard copies in duplicate of all reports.

I F A

8. It is essential for the Grantee to keep copies of all reports and supporting financial and accounting documents that have been submitted to IFA for at least four years after the end of the grant term. IFA reserves its right to conduct or cause to be conducted an audit of your books of accounts in respect of the grant.
9. In case of failure to comply with the above mentioned reporting conditions, the Grantee will be required to return to IFA all funds disbursed with interest earned if any. Failure to comply with grant reporting conditions and undertakings will make the Grantee ineligible for applying to IFA in the future.

C. Monitoring and Evaluation

1. IFA will monitor grant progress as needed through site visits and examination of relevant records by its officers or consultants. IFA may also engage external evaluators to evaluate grant accomplishments from time to time.

D. Extension

1. IFA does not encourage the Grantee to seek extensions of the term of their grant. However, in rare circumstances beyond their control, the Grantee may request a one-time extension of half of the grant term or six months, whichever is lesser.
2. The request will be given consideration only if it is made two months prior to the end of the grant period.

E. Equipment

1. All equipment purchased using grant funds will be treated as the property of IFA and, at the time of submitting the Final Reports, it will be returned to IFA in good working condition.

3. After the end of the grant period, IFA may request the Grantee to present their project at mutually agreed upon Grant Showcases (a maximum of three) that IFA puts together so that the wider public gets to know the work of IFA's Grantees. While all costs will be taken care of by IFA, there will be no honorarium for the Grantee.

Qualification for Membership and Application Procedure

Membership in the IAU is open to countries (National Membership) and individuals (Individual or Junior Membership). The procedures for submission and approval of applications in the two categories are described in the IAU Working Rules (§ II and III). A brief summary of the procedure for seeking nomination for IAU Individual or Junior Membership is given below.

Please note that a new category of membership, the Junior Member has been approved at the IAU XXX General Assembly (August 2018). Now researchers who have just completed their PhD in a branch of astronomy/astrophysics can be proposed as IAU Junior Member. The admission of new Junior Members will be evaluated annually by the Membership Committee and approved by the Executive Committee. Junior Membership is temporary and cannot be extended for more than six years.

- IAU Individual or Junior Membership: Nomination of a candidate residing in a National Member country

As a rule, Individual Membership in the IAU is open to scientists with a PhD or equivalent in a branch of astrophysics.

Junior Membership is open to individuals who have completed the PhD studies and who are in the initial phase of the professional researcher career in some branch of astronomy.

An Individual or Junior Member may be admitted to the IAU by the Executive Committee on the basis of nominations approved by the National Committee for Astronomy (NCA) in their country of employment (when no NCA exists, through the Adhering Organization in that country).

Individuals applying for nomination for IAU Individual or Junior Membership should contact their NCA or Adhering Organization (whichever applies) in their country of work in order to receive the link to the application form. This should be done before December 15th, 2020, so that these applications can be processed for approval in time for their submission to the IAU (see below). The call for membership applications to be submitted is open as of October of 2020. Individual and Junior Membership applications are submitted annually.

The procedure is electronic, via forms made available by the IAU to the NCAs, or to the Adhering Organizations. For reference, the forms include the full name, date and place of birth, and nationality of the candidate; postal and electronic addresses; the University, year, and subject of the Ph.D. or equivalent degree; the current affiliation and occupation, and the IAU Division(s) which the candidate wishes to join, 1 letter/document from the department granting the PhD, a list of past publications plus any additional information required by the NCA or Adhering Organization.

IAU Individual Members and Junior Members do not pay dues to the Union.

June 2 2016

Dear Sir,

This letter is for a request to permit Dr Tirthankar Ghosh (of the Department of Statistics of your university) to join Florida State University as a research fellow.

You may be aware of the fact that Dr. Ghosh worked in our lab as Visiting Research Associate from early October 2013 to late June 2015. He continued his work even after rejoining your institution in India. We highly appreciate the work that was provided by Dr Ghosh in our lab as well as after leaving our lab. It is unfortunate that he had to leave. Meanwhile, we submitted a tropical cyclone forecasting research project, based on Dr Ghosh's work, to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) under HFIP. Now, I am very happy to inform you that NOAA has funded the project, initially for one year. I, therefore, would like Dr. Ghosh to join us for this fellowship, in our lab, again. Since he is the key architect of this project we need him for the successful installation, running and completion of the same. His position is designated as a Visiting Research Associate, and is being offered with a compensation of USD 40,000 per year. The compensation may be termed as 'Scholarship' or 'Research Fellowship'.

I, therefore, request you to kindly release Dr Ghosh from his duty at Visva Bharati at the earliest and join us at Florida state university so that he can continue this good work.

Sincerely Yours,

Dear Dr. Bhattacharyya,

This is in response to your application for the award of Post-Doctoral Fellowship for the year 2016-17 to work on the topic, "Mobile Telephony and Empowerment of Rural Women: A study in the Bolpur Sub-division of Birbhum District, West Bengal, India".

The Expert Committee has evaluated your research proposal and I am glad to inform you that this proposal has been provisionally accepted by the Council for the award of Post-Doctoral Fellowship for a period of two years, subject to the fulfilment of the terms and conditions of the fellowships and will be governed by the Guidelines of the ICSSR Fellowships.

You are expected to work under the guidance of a working senior social scientist, preferably from the discipline of your research, who will certify the progress of your work at every stage.
